

8/14/2017

Mail - energycoaching@live.com

Re: Positivity as a Bystander in Dealing with Bullying

Mary Rowe <mrowe@mit.edu>

Sat 8/12/2017 6:55 PM

To: Jo Ann M. Radja <energycoaching@live.com>;

Cc: Mary Rowe <jmprf@comcast.net>;

Thank you for this excellent article!!!!

The Preventing Bullying Report from NAS is well worth having and covers a great many programs. I found it by coincidence and have been using it for my research on bystanders. Please do tell all our anti-bullying colleagues?

and Thank you for remembering me!!!!!! Next time I may not have found such a reference -- mary

On Aug 12, 2017, at 1:34 PM, Jo Ann M. Radja <energycoaching@live.com> wrote:

Hello Mary, I trust all continues to be well with you in Cambridge. I came across an article published at Cnn.com today and thought you might be interested: <http://www.cnn.com/2017/08/11/health/finland-us-bullying-prevention-trnd/index.html>

How not to raise a mean girl

www.cnn.com

"The United States is a different beast," one researcher says. And for the program to work here, some things have to change.

Best,

Jo Ann M. Radja Author: Ethics to You Too!™

Smashwords Edition 2012

Member - Boss Whispering Institute - Contract Coach

Executive & Career Management Coach

"Recognize, Relate, Resolve."

Blog: <http://careermanagementcoaching.me>

<http://www.smashwords.com/books/search?query=Ethics+to+You+Too> 🐼

<https://www.pinterest.com/ethicstoyoutoo/>